IN PLAIN WORDS

Areas this agreement covers: ☐ Roof ☐ Siding ☐ Gutters ☐ Soffit / fascia ☐ Other: _____

3 IT DEPENDS ON YOUR INSURER'S APPROVAL

- This agreement is contingent on your insurer approving your claim. It becomes a job only if your insurer approves all or part of your claim in writing.
- If your insurer approves all or part of the claim: HMP does the approved work on the areas checked above. The price is the amount in your insurer's written approved scope for that work, plus any supplements your insurer approves in writing. You pay your deductible (see the Deductible Notice). Before any work starts, you and HMP sign HMP's full written contract with the itemized scope, and it comes with its own right to cancel.
- If your insurer denies the claim, you owe HMP nothing and this agreement ends. You do not need to sign or send anything else.
- Nothing to pay today. You pay nothing to sign this agreement. HMP charges nothing for the inspection, the photos, the damage report or meeting the adjuster, whether the claim is approved or denied, and whether or not you cancel.
- No promises about your claim. HMP makes no promise that your insurer will approve or pay any part of your claim. Only your insurer decides what your policy covers.

4 YOUR CLAIM, NOT OURS

You file the claim with your insurer, and every decision about the claim and the settlement is yours.

HMP WILL

- Inspect your property and photograph the damage.
- Give you a copy of its written damage report and photos.
- If you want, be at your property when the adjuster inspects, to show the damage it found.
- Answer your questions about the work and the materials.

HMP WILL NOT

- Negotiate or settle your claim, or speak for you with your insurer.
- Act as your public adjuster. HMP is a contractor.
- Ask you to sign over (assign) any insurance rights or benefits.
- Be named on any insurance check.

5 INSURANCE MONEY AND THE ITEMIZED DESCRIPTION

- No assignment of benefits (Neb. Rev. Stat. 44-8605). You keep all your rights and benefits under your insurance policy. This agreement does not assign any of them to HMP, and HMP is not named as a payee or co-payee on any insurance check. Your insurer pays you (and your mortgage company, if it is on the policy).
- Itemized description to you and your insurer (44-8606). Before any repair or replacement work starts, HMP will give you and your insurer an itemized description of the work to be done and the materials, labor and fees for the repair or replacement, and the total itemized amount agreed to be paid for the work. This does not stop you or HMP from identifying other goods and services needed to complete repairs associated with a covered loss.
- Deductible Notice (44-8607). You sign the notice in section 8. A copy goes to your insurer before any claim money is paid.
